Upon collecting the tickets make sure you receive the Coupons of booked services.

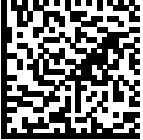

NOTES:

On the day of the tour, before entering the Vatican Museums (Viale Vaticano), present an identity document and voucher to the Customer Care Staff at the entrance. There is a line reserved for visitors with a booking. Visitors are asked to present themselves 30 minutes before the departure of the tour.

After security clearance, climb the stairs on the far left of the entrance hall. The meeting point is located at the 'Guided Tours' desk. The applicant is asked to print off the voucher (it is also possible to show it on a smartphone or tablet) as to present it on the day of the tour.

RULES AND REQUIREMENTS: The voucher is valid only for the day and time reserved. If you lose the ticket before entering the Vatican Museums, you will be required to buy a new ticket even if you have a reservation. It is possible to reserve a ticket at a reduced price for children aged between 7 and 18 years old (18 years included). It is also possible to reserve a ticket at a reduced price for students up to 25 years of age on presentation of a student identity document or a valid International Student Card on the day of the visit. Visitors that purchase a ticket at a reduced rate, without entitlement, must purchase a new ticket at the full rate. The reduced price ticket will be cancelled. It is not possible to modify the date and/or the hour of the reservation. It is not possible to make changes to the number of participants. Tickets are not refundable. The Directorate of the Museums and Cultural Heritage reserves the right to close an exhibition area as a result of a force majeure event, without being under any liability to refund the admission ticket. This tour is not recommended for people with walking difficulties and for visitors in a wheelchair on account of the nature of the pathways. Tickets purchased with a name that does not correspond to the holder will be considered invalid and will not be granted entry. In order to gain entry, a new ticket will have to be purchased at the stipulated tariff.
